ABOUT THIS WINERY

Pavlidis Estate is situated in the region of Drama, in northern Greece, in a narrow valley on the footslopes of Mount Falakro, in proximity to the winter sports resort of Falakro.

It was founded by Christoforos Pavlidis in 1998 after a long search for suitable sites for quality grape growing.

PRODUCT NOTES

Harvesting at night for the aromas. The grapes are destemmed and undergo a delicate crushing, followed by a cold pre-fermentation. Then comes a long pressing and a fermentation at a stable temperature of 18 °C in stainless steel tanks. Aged on lees for 2 months. Nose of exotic fruits and citrus fruits, followed by a beautiful minerality and a delicate note of white pepper. Balanced and rich with a pleasant freshness. Clean and fruity finish.
