ABOUT THIS WINERY

Founded in 1849 by Albert Brenot in Savigny-lès-Beaune, Doudet-Naudin is one of the oldest Burgundy wine Maisons. In 1933 it was acquired by the Doudet family, who have developed and expanded the Maison while preserving its fundamental values: respect for traditions and excellence. Christophe Rochet, the current head of Doudet-Naudin, is committed to maintaining the values of this well-respected Maison while restructuring it.

PRODUCT NOTES

Hand-picked and sorted harvest. Temperature control. De-stemming. Fermentation in open vats for a long time. 19 days before pneumatic pressing. Daily manual punching down. Aged in 100% barrels, 20% of which are new, for 14 months. Aromas: black and red fruits (kirsch, raspberry and blackberry) supported by fine and melted tannins. Spicy and animal notes. The mouth is fleshy, tender, complex and elegant.
