ABOUT THIS WINERY

The domain was born in 2007 under the impulse of Julien Fournier. His ambition pushed him to gather exceptional terroirs in the north and south of the Loire on the communes of Savennières and Rochefort-sur-Loire. There are 34 hectares of vines which are spread out today on the appellations Savennières, Savennières Roche aux Moines, Anjou Blanc and Anjou Villages, Coteaux du Layon, Coteaux du Layon 1er Cru Chaume and Quarts de Chaume Grand cru.

PRODUCT NOTES

Manual harvest with successive selections. Vinification at low temperature between 15 and 17°C. Aged on the lees in wooden vats for 9 months. Charming nose which evokes odors of carambola, ripe pear and quince. Scents of fennel and hawthorn. On the palate, it is full-bodied, rather fat with an impressive length, a tasty aroma and a nervousness making it more suitable for ageing.
