ABOUT THIS WINERY

Tradition is the precondition for creating a new vision and this is particularly true with wine.

The very place in which wine is made is often the bridge between the past and the future. The JURIS winery is located in the city of Gols, a place where wine has been the primary source of living ever since the great folk migrations between the fourth and sixth centuries.

PRODUCT NOTES

Dark color with violet reflections. The nose recalls vibrant smells of morello cherry and plum. The palate highlights its typical varietal character with supple, well-integrated tannins and a long finish revealing notes of fine pepper and even sweet spices.
