ABOUT THIS WINERY

A family estate with character: two passionate women, mother & daughter, are at the head of this estate. The domain works in a tradition and a family continuity.

Authenticity & passion: the purity of the terroirs and the wines, the minerality and the sharing through tasting are key points.

Expertise & elegance: the excellence of the terroirs and the finesse of our muscadets have always been the key words.

PRODUCT NOTES

The wine is vinified on lees. The lees is the result of a natural sedimentation of the solid elements of the wine during the winter. After the alcoholic fermentation, the wine rests on its lees all winter until the bottling at the end of March. This wine reveals delicate aromas of citrus fruits as well as notes of white flowers. After a few months in the bottle, the wine tends to have brioche notes.
