ABOUT THIS WINERY

The Alto Adige region is not only characterized by its mountains, cliffs and high peaks, but also by the vineyards themselves, which are situated on impressive slopes and terraces. For more than a century we have been processing the best hand-picked grapes at different altitudes to produce award-winning alpine wines.

PRODUCT NOTES

Traditional fermentation preceded by cold maceration, partial use of whole bunches; subsequent ageing in barriques, stainless steel tanks and Clayver for 15 months. Light ruby red with light garnet-coloured reflections. Typical Pinot Nero bouquet with an aroma of cherry and a slight hint of vanilla. Elegant wine with good structure, lively tannins with a nice persistence in the aftertaste.
