ABOUT THIS WINERY

Founded in 1849 by Albert Brenot in Savigny-lès-Beaune, Doudet-Naudin is one of the oldest Burgundy wine Maisons. In 1933 it was acquired by the Doudet family, who have developed and expanded the Maison while preserving its fundamental values: respect for traditions and excellence. Christophe Rochet, the current head of Doudet-Naudin, is committed to maintaining the values of this well-respected Maison while restructuring it.

PRODUCT NOTES

Manual harvesting and sorting. Temperature control. Pneumatic press. Beginning of fermentation in stainless steel vats, down in the cellar where the maturation is followed with delicacy. Aged in 100% barrels for 12 months (1 and 2 year old barrels). The nose is expressive: mineral notes (white flowers) and citrus fruits. Mouth : the wine is crisp, fruity and of course elegant with its minerality. This rich and charming wine offers a nice balance.
