ABOUT THIS WINERY

Founded in 1849 by Albert Brenot in Savigny-lès-Beaune, Doudet-Naudin is one of the oldest Burgundy wine Maisons. In 1933 it was acquired by the Doudet family, who have developed and expanded the Maison while preserving its fundamental values: respect for traditions and excellence. Christophe Rochet, the current head of Doudet-Naudin, is committed to maintaining the values of this well-respected Maison while restructuring it.

PRODUCT NOTES

Hand-picked and sorted harvest. Temperature control. Pneumatic pressing. Aged in 100% barrels, 20% of which are new, for 13 months. The nose is powerful and expressive, fruity. The mouth is graceful and mineral. It opens on invigorating and floral notes (citrus, juniper, quince, lemon), then on hazelnut and almond.
