ABOUT THIS WINERY

Founded in 1849 by Albert Brenot in Savigny-lès-Beaune, Doudet-Naudin is one of the oldest Burgundy wine Maisons. In 1933 it was acquired by the Doudet family, who have developed and expanded the Maison while preserving its fundamental values: respect for traditions and excellence. Christophe Rochet, the current head of Doudet-Naudin, is committed to maintaining the values of this well-respected Maison while restructuring it.

PRODUCT NOTES

Manual harvesting and selection (sorting of bunches on a table). Cold maceration of one week followed by a fermentation of one week, under temperature control. Aged in stainless steel tanks. The nose reveals notes of cherry, raspberry and blackcurrant, all supported by nuances of wild fruit. The mouth is lively and pleasant with fine tannins. The finish is reminiscent of the aromas of small fruits perceived in the olfaction.
