ABOUT THIS WINERY

One is not born into the Auvigue family without having a heart that beats for the terroirs of Pouilly-Fuiss  . For a very long time, the footsteps of Sylvain Brenas-Auvigue, great-grandson of the founder of the eponymous house, have crisscrossed the vineyards surrounding the villages of Pouilly and Fuiss  . The latter took over Maison Auvigue in 2016.

PRODUCT NOTES

Vinified from purchased grapes, the juices are put through static settling for 12 hours. The clear juices are transferred to temperature-controlled stainless steel vats for fermentation. After fermentation, the wines are aged on lees and in stainless steel tanks until bottling. This wine expresses all the character of "Chardonnay" through citrus notes combined with a hint of menthol and minerality, offering freshness and generosity.
